Gaye Lindfors is a strategic business advisor, speaker, workshop leader, and author who specializes in helping organizations and individuals manage through transition.

Business Advisor

Through her company, Significant Solutions, Inc., Gaye makes the connection between employees who want to be their best at work, and business owners who want to inspire the best in their employees. Her organizational development expertise and experience have helped business owners transform the way they do business.

National Speaker and Workshop Leader

With authenticity, passion, and humor, Gaye touches people's hearts and minds. She loves the Lord, and she reminds her audiences they were created for a divine purpose. Gaye is known for her ability to generate enthusiasm, create connections, and focus people on living with purpose.

Author

Gaye is the author of Find a Job: The Little Book for BIG SUCCESS and a contributing author to the book Don't Miss Your Boat: Living Your Life With Purpose in the Real World.

About Gaye

Gaye knows the joy and the challenges that come with trying to be authentic and live a faith-based life in a world that demands so much. Her professional experience includes leadership positions in Fortune 500 companies and non-profit organizations. Gaye has led a human resources team that supported 12,000 airline employees, served as the Chief of Staff to a college president, and has worked with a Christian family conference ministry. She has the reputation for being a skilled executive advisor and confidante.

She is a member of the National Training Team for Laurie Beth Jones, Inc., an active member and volunteer with the National Speakers Association (NSA), and a graduate of the CLASS Seminars (Christian Leaders, Authors and Speaker Services).

Gaye finds great joy in serving as a worship leader, a community volunteer, and being actively involved in her own church. You may have heard Gaye on KTIS Christian radio's Workplace Moments. She and her husband Steve live in St. Paul, Minnesota.

The Path Workshop: Creating Your Mission Statement for Work and for Life

What if you could truly know where you are going – spiritually, personally, and professionally? What if you could determine God's highest purpose for your life and within a few hours, have a step-by-step action plan for pursuing it? The Path™ Workshop is based on Laurie Beth Jones' best selling book, The Path: Creating Your Mission Statement for Work and for Life. It will help you define your mission and create a brief, powerful and focused statement of purpose based on solid Christian and Biblical principles.

Help! My Life Jacket Has a Hole in It!

We know we are loved by an Almighty God. We know we were created for a divine purpose. But what happens when our ship begins sinking faster than we can plug the holes? What do we do when our life jacket doesn't fit, our energy went overboard yesterday, and there's only one oar left in the boat? Whether you are enjoying "Peace Like a River" or you're on the "Bridge Over Troubled Waters," you will appreciate Gaye's humor and encouragement as she reminds you of the peace that comes only from Jesus, the Captain of our Souls.

Find a Job: The Little Workshop for BIG SUCCESS

Based on Gaye's book, Find a Job: The Little Book for BIG SUCCESS

Finding a new job is easier when your resume says, "I've got what you're looking for," your network connections say, "I can help," and your interview confirms, "Here's why you should hire me." Building on 25+ years of hiring experience and using a mix of best practices, humor, and real-life stories, Gaye's workshop will help you find a job and put you on your path to big success.

Don't Miss Your Boat: Living Your Life with Purpose in the Real World

We've all said it, "If I can get through this week, then..." or "As soon as work slows down, then...". Although our intentions are good, our time is spent living in the present. In this message you will be reminded you were created for a divine reason, and today matters!

Where's the Magic Wand When I Need It?

Face it. We have had moments when we thought our job or life circumstance was intolerable. And unfortunately, there's no magician in sight who can make the day disappear! How do we get out of bed, throw away the Hagen-Das ice cream, exchange our sweatpants for the work uniform, and return to the land of the living? Whether your life is right on track or your supermarket can't replenish the ice cream shelves fast enough, you're going to appreciate Gaye's strategies on dealing with real life – and real work – without any magic involved!
